CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF SUCCESS

- The Synthetic Latex Company (SLC) was founded in 1967, incorporating advanced latex manufacturing technologies from the UK.
- Evolution Through Mergers: Our company merged with Sentrachem, which was acquired by Dow Chemicals in 1997. In 2003, a management buyout led to the formation of Karbochem Holdings, which included SLC and Karbochem (Pty) Ltd.
- Independence Achieved: In 2017, we celebrated our 50th anniversary and became a fully independent entity.
- Diverse Group of Companies: Today, the SLC Group includes The Synthetic Latex Company, Valor Chemicals, Simultec, and The Shared Services Company, providing a comprehensive range of products and services across multiple industries.
